Petition

Dr. Teraki was a student of the Medical Department, Hokkaido University. After he was graduated from the university he worked in the Research Section, Welfare Department, in which in those days I was chief doctor. He studied there very hard about bacilli-carrier diphtheria, and was awarded the degree of Doctor. He was very mild and modest, and was uncommonly quiet. Therefore I believe his act at Chichijima was done unwillingly in obedience to orders of his superior officer under the strict army discipline.

I heard that he was to be tried. Please understand his unfortunate situation that he had to serve under a brutal, malignant officer. He received the degree of doctor when he was young. His essay shows he is a very excellent doctor.

Gentlemen, I beseech that you understand the unfortunate circumstances in which he was forced to act in such a manner; and that you recognize his fine character and be lenient with him.

We were very surprised when we heard from the mother of Mr. Teraki that he was suddenly arrested as a war criminal suspect.

We know nothing about what Mr. Teraki did, nor where he was, during the war. However, when we lately heard that he had been arrested, we could not think of the reason for his arrest, because we knew that he used to be a very sincere doctor who had worked with us at the Public Health Institute.

Mr. Teraki became an assistant doctor at the Public Health Institute in June 1939, and was attached to the Epidemic Section with us. Under the instruction of Dr. Keizo Noheji, he devoted himself in medical research as a student. At first his main subject of research was the examination of tuberculin reaction. To carry out this research, one had to work not only in the laboratory but in farmer's village and many other places. Since this research required the examination of many people, one could not complete it unless he was earnest and kind. Mr. Teraki had such a quiet and gentle manner toward patients that he gave very good impressions. Besides working on his research, he told TB patients how to treat the disease and gave instructions. His TB patients very often appreciated his kindness.

Mr. Teraki worked on TB for about two years and completed his research about tuberculin reaction. Then he began studying venereal disease. He concentrated his research in the diagnosis of gonorrhoea until November 1942 at which time he left our institute. As a result of this research, he was awarded the degree of doctor. During this research, he worked very hard, forgetful of both eating and sleeping. We were very surprised to see his earnest attitude in this research. We felt that it was impossible for us to concentrate our effort on one subject so earnestly and patiently as he did. We believe that this is one of the excellent and respectable traits of his character.

Exhibit 31 (a)

Also, he was very faithful toward his professor. He was a man who was very obedient to the policy of his professor and we never heard him making comments about such policy. We suppose that he would obey the orders of his commanding officer at the battle front as he did toward his professor in the laboratory. He also would perform it very faithfully and immediately. We think, therefore, that he would be admired and loved by his commanding officer and comrades. We are afraid that this obedience might have something to do with the war crimes for which he is suspected.

Although we know nothing about the reason why he is a war criminal suspect, we beg that you will take his good character, his friendship he showed in the laboratory, and his sincere attitude toward research into your consideration; and that you will deal with him leniently.

We also beg that you will give him a chance to work for the peaceful society of mankind.

Itokawa, Kinya,

Dr. Teraki worked as a doctor in my Itokawa Hospital about one year after the summer of 1946. He first visited me with a recommendation of my friend, Dr. Akutagawa. At that time I had enough doctors and I told him that I could not employ him. He told me that he wanted to study at my hospital as an apprentice, so I permitted him to work. Although he received no pay, he cooperated with me very earnestly with a modest, serious, and scholar-like attitude, so I decided to employ him specially as a doctor.

After that he worked very hard, obeyed my orders, observed regulations, was kind to the patients, and treated them with sympathy. He was very much respected and trusted by all patients. I was astonished when I heard recently that he was confined in prison as a war crime suspect.

He was an honest, rather timid, and sincere man. How could he be a war criminal? We believe he was not at all willing to commit such a thing but was forced to do so by superior orders. He was a gentle and faithful man. If he committed any crime, please give him a fair trial and deal with him leniently. I submit this petition before you for your clemency in behalf of many patients who trusted Dr. Teraki.

Since the end of last year, I have been associated with Doctor TERAKI, Tadashi. He is a man of noble and gentle character and is a very conscientious and serious gentleman. In his association with patients and others, he is very humane and kind.

I have always had a great respect for his character. His daily speech and behavior are such that I can't believe that he had committed a crime on the bloody battlefield, even though he was under the strict orders of lawless superiors. Although it was for only a very short period that Doctor TERAKI, Tadashi, practiced in the Internal Disease Department Number Two of the Juntendo Dispensary, he was very popular with the patients because of his kindness and courtesy, and I have always admired him as a doctor of noble character who was conscientiously engaged in medical research. I entered the Institute for the Study of Contagious and Infectious Disease of the Public Sanitary Department with Dr. Teraki and served in the same roon with him for about three years, when he was transferred to the Naval Surgeon School.

During this period, he was very gentle and had no trouble with either others or myself.

I never observed any tyrannical or arrogant manner about him. He was very earnest in his study and he was the first man who received the degree of doctor among the class-mates.

He disliked the war very much. One time he explained why he left the Public Sanitary Department, and went to the Naval Surgeon School - He thought that it would be considered the Armed Forces if he worked in the Naval Surgeon School.

I also think he stopped work in the Naval Surgeon School because he could not bear with suppression of the Naval members.

It was indeed a tragic fate for him that he, who disliked war, was sent to the isolated island, Chichi Jima.

I believe he could never bring himself to commit any atorocity to the Allied personnel by his own will. Perhaps he was forced into such a sad fate unwillingly.

Gentlemen of the Court! I beseech you, under the circumstances, to investigate the truth and abate his penalty.

Any man who once met him knows that he is a real gentleman. We can not believe that he was confined in the prison, but it is a vain effort to deny the facts in our own knowledge, like a virgin denies reality and lives in her sentimental dream. I believe that the honorable members of the court will give him fair and just judgement in the name of Christian humanity.

I believe you will examine his case carefully and he will be freed from confinement. I respect his nice character and I believe he is not guilty.

I worked with Dr. Teraki and knew him. He is very kindhearted and straightforward to all of the Patients and nurses.

He had an ideal of Peace. Therefore, I must doubt that he committed any atrocity. He is truly a gentleman.

Gentlemen of the court! I sincerely beseech that you be lenient with him as far as possible.

October 20, 1948

I served in the Juntendo Hospital with Dr. Teraki for several months. During his service, his personality showed us that he was a great doctor and a man with a high sense of responsibility. He was also a good example to the nurses.

To our great regret, we have heard that he has been confined in prison as a war crime suspect.

I would like to continue believing him as a great doctor, and I still believe he is a trustworthy man.

Gentlemen of the court! I sincerely hope that you, under the circumstances, be lenient with him as far as possible.

I am a nurse working in the Juntendo Hospital.

We, workers and patients, all were moved to tears when we heard that Dr. Teraki had been confined in the prison as a war crime suspect, and must go before the Military Tribunal as a sacrifice of a defeated Japan.

He was a truly gentle and quiet man; worked in the Hospital as the key doctor; and, was respected by all members of the staff.

Patients in the Hospital and visiting patients trusted him very much.

Gentlemen of the court! I should be most grateful if you would kindly accept this humble petition and find him innocent and send him back to this Hospital and his family.

I served in the same hospital with Dr. Teraki. I have heard he committed some atrocity to the Allied personnel and is going before the Military Tribunal. I became one of his friends after the war serving with him in the Juntendo Hospital.

He was very earnest in his duty, was never aggravated, and was very honest. I respected him for these traits.

His department was separated from my department, but I knew it to be natural for him to be respected and trusted by all friends, seniors, and patients.

PETITION

September 18, 1948

We members of the Medical College in the Juntendo Hospital, were very much surprised to hear that Dr. Teraki was confined in the prison as a war crime suspect.

He devoted his body and soul in his lectures to us. He gave key-pointed answer to our questions. He thought of everything very earnestly.

I remember he was a gentleman with a moustache along his smiling lip. Now I am going to state the figure of Dr. Teraki which comes and goes though my mind just like a picture of a revolving lantern. I should be very honored if it comes to your attention.

When he came to this Hospital he was living in a boarding-house. He said many times that he was sorry to ask the maid of the boarding-house to prepare his meals and sometimes he did it himself.

When I took lunch with him, we came to forget ourselves talking together. During the building of his new house he never requested his carpenters to hurry, seeing their points. But many times he said that he would like to bring his wife and children to his new home as soon as possible. He loved to keep his children under the same roof with him for their education.

It was a very short time that he lived with him, and now he has to go to the trials.

I can suppose that he behaved himself like a gentleman in the army under the severe suppression of the militarist during the war.

In the Japanese Army a man had to obey his superior's order absolutely, so I believe that Dr. Teraki obeyed any order of his superior officer, behaving himself like a doctor or highly-educated gentleman.

He was respected very much, not only by us, but by the entire staff of the Internal Medical Establishment Hospital.

We are very sorry to hear this this lofty gentleman has been brought to trial.

I pray to the God that his case will be made clear, and that I can see his smiling face again.

I should be most grateful if you would accept this humble petition, give him a fair and just trial, and be lenient with him as far as possible.

I am very much honored to have the privilege of addressing this humble petition to the honorable members of the court.

I am praying to the God that suspicions as to him is a mistake.

He used to see the other's viewpoints. He was of high morals, and kind-hearted. He felt his responsibility in the treatment of patients and sometimes he went all night without sleep in their behalf.

I must doubt any suspicion directed against him. Perhaps he obeyed machine-line the absolute orders of his senior officer.

Many patients who lost him are very sad now.

Petition

12 February 1949

I am very much honored to have the privilege of addressing this humble petition to the honorable members of the American Military Commission, concerning the character of Dr. Teraki.

Dr. Teraki is a man who devoted his body and soul to his doctor's job to help patients. He is a man who saves human beings and not a man who would commit an atrocity against a human being.

I believe that the reason he has been confined as a war crime suspect came only from the situation existing on Chichi Jima.

I should be very grateful if you would kindly accept this petition and be lenient with him as far as possible.

数多くの医者の中で寺木先生程病人に御親切な方はめったに見られません。それといやがるような病人にも進んで往診なされてよく面倒をみられて居るのには誰でも感謝せずには居られません。どんな時にもいやなかをさせないので全くえらいかただと思ってみます。

寺木先生が戦争裁判にかゝって居られると伺ってほんとにお気の毒にたえません。寺木先生のおかげで病苦から救はれてみる人々も多いのですからどうぞこの、良い先生をおゆるし下さいますようは心からおねがい申上ます。

I have never before known such a kind doctor as Dr. Teraki. He willingly consulted with any type of patient, so there was no one who was not thankful to him. He never disliked going to see any patient. I have respected him very much.

To my great regret, I have heard he has been confined as a war crime suspect. As there are many who were aided by Dr. Teraki, I plead with you to be lenient with him as far as possible.

I have always been grateful for receiving the guidance of Doctor Teraki, Tadashi, although it was for but a short period -- from the time he commenced to serve at this hospital in September of last year until his temporary retirement in April of this year. I was acquainted with Dr. Teraki while he was working for 6 months after September 1947 in our hospital. I was also friendly with him after he practiced medicine himself. He had all the necessary talents for a clinical doctor. He was very kind to any patients. He took care of a patient with full sense of responsibility after he began treating him. I respected his attitude and I wanted to follow his pattern. He did not possess any cold-heartedness or selfishness which is frequent for a man of high sense of responsibility. (According to my experience such a man has a trend to be cold-hearted or selfish.)

I can hardly believe he committed inhumane acts in the past.

He was faithful toward his profession and was a good father and husband at home. If he did it, I believe there would be some malignant and hateful power which forced him to do such an act. It is truly a big loss for us to prevent his working. I beg that you will be lenient with him.

PETITION

I was greatly shocked to hear concerning Professor Teraki, Tadashi.

I served with Dr. Teraki from July until October of 1944 and from December 1945 until February 1946, at the same hospital.

The doctor was a warm-hearted and kind man.

He treated the patients with love and care and for that he was highly respected by many p eople.

When I think of the conduct of the doctor and his character, I cannot believe that he would have done the things that he is charged with having done.

Please conduct a full investigation and be lenient to the doctor.

I was greatly shocked on learning about Professor Teraki, Tadashi recently.

I believe that all whc came in contact with him respected him for the kind and loving manner in which he treated his patients. I knew him before he left for the front in 1944 and after he returned from the war.

I firmly believe that the doctor would not do anything contrary to right. Please investigate fully into his circumstances and be lenient with him.

I served with Dr. Teraki from July 1944 until October 1944 when he was inducted.

The doctor was a very quiet man and he never once raised his voice.

He was kind and full of care and attention when treating patients and was consequently loved by many patients.

I cannot believe that the serious, kind and warm-hearted doctor could have done evil things on the field of battle. I cannot believe that he would have done anything bad even under unlawful superior orders.

When I heard rumors concerning the doctor I would not believe them to be true. I thought, "They are falsehoods. It cannot be that the gentle Dr. Teraki could have done those things. There must be some mistake."

Please investigate into the matter concerning the doctor very fully. And Please deal leniently with him.

Even to a janitor such as I he was kind and considerate often inquiring into my personal troubles et cetera.

I was acquainted with Dr. Teraki for about one year, from Summer in 1947 in the Juntendo Hospital.

I was very much surprised to hear that Dr. Teraki was confined in prison as a war crime suspect. I think that there is, perhaps, some mistake.

He is a doctor who is very kind-hearted, and is faithful to his duty.

The conditions in the Japanese Army in those days were far different from that understood by the people of democratic countries.

I beseech you under the circumstances to take his case into special consideration.

I was very much surprised to hear that Dr. Teraki was confined as a war crime suspect. It was really unexpected for me who know his character very well. We, patients, used to witness his affectionate, noble and peaceful personality grounded on Christian humanity. I was honored to receive his kindness. I cannot believe that he is suspected as a criminal. However, as he was confined as a suspect, I cannot understand this big contradiction. But my righteous sense insists that he was not a man who can be suspected as a criminal. Although I am still sick in bed I wish to write this letter to beseech the honorable members of the commission who judge him under the name of Christian humanity that he be given a fair and just trial. He has a respectful, benevolent, and noble character like a true humaniterian and always self-sacrificing, which I knew from his daily behavior. When I think of the pitiful life of his wife who is living without him, taking care of his children, I feel deep sympathy toward them and think I must do something for them. Thus I came to submit this petition, and I believe that this is the way I should do, because I believe Christianity is a true love toward human beings. Yes, Christianity is a true friend who will save an innocent man and will make him free very soon. Gentelemen of the Commission, I beseech that you take the circumstances into consideration; that you be lenient with him; and that you will release him.

In addition to other difficulties, I became seriously ill on 3 January 1945, and because of my poverty, this illness became worse until I was delirious. My neighbors called a doctor, but I was dubious, and did not expect much, and had partly resigned myself to my fate. It was cold, but the doctor arrived promptly. He immediately attended to everything, and treated me kindly for two hours after giving me an injection.

I, who was on the verge of death, remember the doctor who seemed more like a god than a man as he performed his duties with sincerity and with a diligence which surpassed that of my own family -- especially at that time when moral principles were forgotten.

Under his attentive care, I improved rapidly and was saved. This person was none other than Doctor Taraki, Tadashi. In the midst of suffering, people will always disclose traits of egoism, but this was never evident in this doctor. As clearly proved by my personal experience, he not only devoted his undivided attention to his work but furthermore had the welfare of the people at heart.

Thereafter, as usual, he visited me on several occasions even while occupied with duties, and he was sincerely concerned about my convalescence. Words and writing cannot express my gratitude to this doctor for his endeavors.

The other day I called on the doctor because he hadn't been around for a while. How great was my surprise when I heard from his sad wife that he had been taken away because he was suspected of war crimes. I was so choked with emotion that I could not say any more. I could not imagine that kind and virtuous doctor committing such a deed.

Furthermore, he has been taken to the scene of the crime. If the doctor fails to return, many patients will regret it. I immediately resolved to write and file this petition. This was not prompted solely by personal reasons. Will not the development of a bright society, with the virtues of peace and cooperation, be hastened proportionately through the presence of one more person as kind, honest, and with the admirable, strong moral sense of this doctor?

I entreat your magnanimous kindness and beg that you return him as soon as possible.

I have been afflicted with neuralgia since 6 February 1949 and, owing to the fact that I was at a loss as to the proper medicine and treatment to take, my illness grew worse until finally I was unable to walk and became bedridden. Mr. Hori, our neighbor, who came to visit me at that time stated that his wife improved greatly after receiving treatment from Doctor Teraki and that he was glad to introduce me to him. Therefore, I asked him to do so. Although it was at night, Doctor Teraki came immediately to examine me and kindly gave me thorough instructions on the methods of treatment and the type of food to eat. Thereafter, he looked after me, rain or shine. As a result, I recovered completely and since then I have been performing my daily tasks as a housewife. I truly believe that my recovery was due to the kindness and excellent medical skill of Doctor Teraki, Tadashi, and I felt happy and assured that as long as he was around I would be able to carry on without any worries even if I became ill at any time. However, I was surprised to learn that he has been arrested as a war criminal and is not at home. I cannot believe that is is true because he was such a warm-hearted, kind, honest, and good natured person. If the absence of Doctor Teraki continues in the future, it will be a great blow to a large number of persons such as I. Furthermore, I believe that other persons hearing this news will be greatly disappointed. I believe that numerous lives can be saved by Doctor Teraki in the future. I beg of you to bestow generous sympathy upon Doctor Teraki, the trusty savior of my life, and release him and permit him to return home as soon as possible.

It is unbelievable and astonishing that Dr. Teraki has been confined as a war crime suspect. I have been acquainted with Dr. Teraki from the time we were working in the Itokawa Hospital, and especially at the time when my husband consulted him concerning the disease of his head, he was treated very kindly and got better in a short period. I introduced him to my neighbors and they were thankful to him because his treatment was so proper that they recovered soon. He was a man of integrity and did not care much about money; and we admired his noble character. Since his family was in the country, he was looking for a house in Tokyo around the end of last year. I shared my house with his family for four months. During his stay at my home I knew that he was a nice son to his parents because he was very kind to his mother who often came to see him. I also knew many instances which showed that he was a good husband to his wife and was a kind father to his children. There are very few such respectful gentlemen as Dr. Teraki, who always gave me good impressions while he was living with me. I beg that you will have special consideration for him, so that he will come back to his family and work for the people of the society as a doctor.

PETITION

Sept. 21, 1948

I have heard that Dr. Teraki has been confined in the prison and investigated concerning the Prisoner of War.

I came in the Juntendo Hospital in September 1947 as a patient and I was consulted with Dr. Teraki.

Already I mostly recovered. He is a man of high principle and I believe he could never commit any atrocity to the Allied Personnel.

I plead with you under the circumstances to be lenient with him and liberate him as soon as possible.

I certify that the foregoing is a true and complete translation of the original in Japanese to the best of my ability.

The trial was held under authority of Naval Courts and Boards except that the commission was authorized by the precept to relax the rules of naval courts to meet the necessities of the trial and use the rules of evidence and procedure promulgated December 5, 1945 by the Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers in his Regulations Governing the Trials of Accused War Criminals and modifications thereof, as necessary to obtain justice.

The proceedings, findings on specifications 1, 2, 3 and 4 and on the charge, and sentence in the foregoing case of TERAKI, Tadashi, former surgeon second lieutenant, IJA, are approved. In view, however, of the fact that the accused has been held in confinement under investigation and awaiting trial since 6 August 1948, the period of confinement is reduced to three (3) years and five (5) months.

TERAKI, Tadashi, former surgeon second lieutenant, IJA, will be transferred to the custody of the Commanding General, 8th U.S. Army, via the first available transportation to serve his sentence of confinement in Sugamo Prison, Tokyo, Japan.
