HAJIME HONDA, PROFILE

JAMES ACKERMAN, first being duly sworn, deposes and says:

I was a prisoner of war at Fukuoka Camp #1, Japan, from November 1944 until September 1945. I recognize the individual whose photograph appears on the reverse side of this print as Hajime Honda, who was a member of the Japanese Camp Personnel, but I have no further statement to make regarding his activities, while at the camp.
