Captain George Steiger: A POW Diary

© 1997 Frank Steiger; please send comments to fsteiger@attbi.com

My uncle, George Steiger, was stationed on Corregidor Island in the Philippines in 1941 and was captured by the Japanese in May, 1942 when the island surrendered. The following is a record of his diary entries from July 1941 to September 1945. It is transcribed from a blurred typed carbon copy made by his wife, Ottly Goodrich Steiger. Additional information inserted in the typed copy by Ottly Steiger is shown in italics. In some cases the text was so blurred as to be difficult to decipher. In addition there were some typos and unfamiliar abbreviations. When the meaning was reasonably clear, I made the correction. When the meaning was uncertain, I left it "as is," in some cases inserting a comment in brackets [ ].
