subject: Chinese Forced Labor Camp.

To : Whom it may Concern.

By August 28, 1945, 13 days after the surrender, the command of this camp of mixed nationalities was virtually in our hands, regardless of the fact that no orders had been received to that effect. This was brought about in 13 days by a gradual increase of liberties, requests, and demands on our part. The Japanese were very cooperative and jittery and were very worried that we would let the prisoners get out of hand. We, however, were confident that they would be easily controlled. Not one infraction of our orders was reported.

About 800 yards from our camp is a camp of 634 Chinese forced labor. During the past year our men have been in more or less steady contact with members of the Chinese camp and we knew that their living conditions were bad. During the past year they have had about 200 deaths. On August 28th we had a report that the conditions in their camp were even more deplorable since the surrender.

At receipt of this report we considered our position sufficiently strong to lend some assistance to the Chinese. I therefore informed the Japanese Commanding Officer that we intended to inspect the Chinese Camp next day, August 29th.

Conditions were indeed deplorable. Latrines were overflowing. Feces was running down the hillsides and foot-paths. Feces was two inches deep in the latrine stalls. Maggots were crawling everywhere in millions. Drainage ditches were clogged with filth of every description. The kitchen was filthy and swarming with flies. The ration was three soggy buns per meal and a watery soup--about one part radish tops to 100 parts water. The kitchen manager was being changed every two days by order of the Japanese. Most of the men had never had a bath during the entire past year and the one cheap suit of each man was the same as every other thing--filthy. Every fourth man was suffering from a severe skin infection (pyoderma). Our camp doctor, Major James H. Bahrenburg M. D., found one case of advanced syphilis, six cases of acute beri beri, five cases of tuberculosis who were not isolated, and one man both of whose legs had been amputated due to infection. Forty five men were quartered in a room 18'x27' in double-decked bunks without interval.

Treatment of all cases was started immediately. The following steps were taken:

- A. Chinese leaders were assembled and all deficiencies were pointed out to them. They were told that we would apply pressure to the Japanese Mine officials for the necessary supplies and food and that we would send the necessary tools for digging latrines, sumps, etc. They had no tools.
- B. Leaders were told that after two days, August 30, 1945, if satisfactory progress had been made in cleaning up the camp prisoner of war food, tobacco, and sweets would be donated for all the 634 Chinese. (Most satisfactory method of dealing with Orientals.)
- C. Permanent mess officer was appointed.
- D. Old building was designated as sick room and Chinese carpenters were ordered to tear down perimeter fence to remodel same.
- E. Twenty ex-service men were chosen as a guard to maintain order and to prevent friction with the Japanese.
- F. An Army Warrant Officer, Holley L. Wilkinson, was designated to maintain constant watch over the camp and to assist and advise the Chinese leaders in every possible way.

200 September 8, 1945

We visited the managing director of the mine and ordered the necessary food and supplies, all of which were delivered almost immediately.

Upon our second inspection, August 31, 1945, we found a remarkable improvement. All deficiencies had either been corrected or were in the process of being corrected. We then sent meat, various other foods, cigarettes, and sweets in accordance with our previous promise.

Since our original visit the camp has shown a steady improvement. Food is now satisfactory. Bodies, clothing, buildings, latrines, and grounds are now in a satisfactory state of cleanliness. Morale is much higher. Sick men have been placed in one place and tuberculosis patients have been isolated.

The Chinese have cooperated well. We inspect the camp daily and if found satisfactory we send additional food, tobacco, and sweets, etc.

More damaging than the high-handed disposal of valuable property stolen by the Japanese from the British and the Americans is the symbolic manner in which it is done. One can well imagine that the turning over "with appropriate ceremonies" of "swank clubs" could not fail to be especially gratifying to Asiatic witnesses. For the exclusive clubs furnish a fair example of the sort of thing which already roused a resentment easy for the Japanese to exploit. Both points of view are perfectly understandable. The Americans and the British residing in the Far East were foreigners in an alien setting far from home. They tried to reproduce in their clubs an atmosphere as like as possible to something in their own countries. In this there was certainly an element of home sickness and not necessarily any element of arrogance. But the effect was arrogant. Not only was an opportunity lost to meet interesting and interested Asiatics in a pleasantly casual way on ground less formal and demanding than that of pre-arranged private hospitality, but local people including those of the highest distinction took note that they were excluded in their own country from a desirable social amenity.

In addition to pumping out a constant stream of out and out lies, impressive at last from sheer weight of repetition, the Japanese have ably played up and distorted everything connected with the white races which genuinely rankled, whether great or small.

The two chief methods by which the Japanese conduct their campaign against the Western democracies are "re-education" and the radio war.

"RE-EDUCATION"

In the main, the educational methods employed by Japan in the "Co-Prosperity Sphere" are those with which Germany has so painfully familiarised Europe. European languages are banned in schools, University libraries burnt. One of the first actions in occupied countries was to close the schools, and then re-open them with the curricula overhauled and thoroughly degraded from the academic as well as other standpoints.

"The High School course in Manila will be shortened to three years to give the students fundamental, useful knowledge in various occupational trades".

Domei 18.10.42.

"The first principle to be adopted in the education of a young Chinese is to set a high value on labour service".

Publicity Minister of the Nanking Government, quoted Domei 24.10.42.

"The book trade in Manchuria will be purged of all books propagating the 'Spirit of Chungking' and glorifying the 'Old Order' by the newly founded 'Association of Manchuria Booksellers'. All foreign books imported into the country will henceforth be subjected to strict examination by this new organisation".

3. DOCUMENTS and

(a) Nearly all documents and papers at the time of surrender by an order from the Japanese military authorities. Those available are as follows:

- INCL 1 Plan of SENDAI No. 1 PW CAMP.
- " 2 Photographs in envelopes.
- " 3 Chart showing number of PWs delivered to evacuating authorities.
- " 4 Notes on amount of bread given PWs.
- " 5 List of PWs who died.
- " 6 Chart showing number of PWs received, died, and in hospital, with dates.
- " 7 Permissions for cremation.
- " 8 Number of bread tickets given to PWs.

(b) All other records including name lists are said to have been burned.

4. CONTROLLING AUTHORITIES and CHANGE OF TITLE.

This camp was controlled as follows:

TOKYO CONTROL--established 18 Apr 1943
ended 14 Apr 1945

SENDAI CONTROL--from 15 Apr 1945
until present

9. DISPOSAL OF BODIES AND RECORDS.

All bodies were cremated and ashes sent to TOKYO. All records and identification tags are said to have been sent to TOKYO after the surrender by an order of the allied authorities.

10. DISTINGUISHING SIGNS AND PROXIMITY TO MILITARY TARGETS.

- (a) Blackout was in effect at all times at night.
- (b) Large sized letters #9 were painted on the roof of the barracks after the surrender.
- (c) There were no distinguishing characteristics in connection with the entire camp.
- (d) A railroad track went through the S. W. corner of the camp.
- (e) It was 200 yards from the nearest military objective, the mine buildings.

11. MEDICAL FACILITIES.

(a) The PWs were treated in the PW camp hospital by the following PW doctors.

Capt. READE (British)
1st Lt. De WOLFE (Dutch)
Capt. RADE (Canadian)

- (b) There are possibly errors in the spelling of these names as they were given from memory.
- (c) A Japanese Dr. KAZUHIRO SHIRAKURA the company doctor of INAKI MINE, visited the camp once a week on thursday mornings to treat seriously ill patients and advise the PW doctors.
- (d) Dr. SHIRAKURA stated that 60% of the PWs were suffering from Beri-Beri on arrival. A large number contracted skin diseases from scratching flea and other vermin bites after arrival at camp. Upon arrival at the camp approximately 60 PWs were treated on an average per day. This number dropped to 20 or 30 per day later.
- (e) Medical supplies were received from the company hospital and also the Japanese Army.

12. WELFARE.

a) FOOD

- (1) 705 gms consisting of 60% rice and 40% grains were given each PW per day.
- (2) 200gms of bread per man was given each day until June 1945 at which time only those workers in the mine received bread.
- (3) Despite difficulties in obtaining meat it was stated that 15-20 gms of meat a day was given each PW or 110-120 gms of fish was given.

4. Controlling Authority and change of title.

The camp was under TOKYO control 13 May 1944-14 Apr 1945
The camp was under SENDAI control 15 Apr 1945-Present.
At the time of TOKYO control the camp was entitled TOKYO
No. 14 INTERNMENT CAMP.
At the time of SENDAI control the camp was called SENDAI
No. 2 INTERNMENT CAMP.

5. Commandant.

1st Lt. HIROJI HONDA established the camp 28 Mar 1944 and remained until 28 Jul 1945.
1st Lt. YUTAKA NINOMIYA camp commandant 28 Jul 1945-Present.

6. Location.

At YOSHIMA Mining Co. located at YOSHIMA village 4 km N. of TAIRA, on highway to KORIYAMA.

14. General.

It is emphasized that the forgoing information is derived almost entirely from interrogation of Japanese officials and civilians and therefore cannot be considered as accurate without further substantiation. All important records and papers were burned at the time of surrender under direction of the camp commandant. It is considered that all possible details have been derived from the source available to the Investigating Personnel but confirmation is required from documents which should now be in the hands of higher authorities.

Subject : Result of Investigation of Prisoner of War
Camps, Numbers three(3) and ten(10), Sendai.

To : Commanding Officer, Recovered Personnel Detachment.

1. Attached hereto report of above subject.

E. A. Kennedy, Jr.
E. A. Kennedy, JR.
2nd Lt. Inf.

He also reported that there had been no deaths, and no evidence of any deaths could be found.
A complete physical examination of the camp was made and there was no evidence of any type of torture.
The camp had been given a thorough cleaning and all windows were boarded over.

It was informed that the camp had already been visited by three (3) United States Army men who had arrived from Morikita. Their identity was unknown.

The buildings in the compound were in good condition and this was probably due to the fact that there had only been one fire in 1945.

The large building where the prisoners of war were quartered contained in addition to sleeping quarters, a kitchen, store room, latrine and the medical section.

There were double tiers for sleeping purposes, the lower tier being of wood construction and raised above the floor level about one (1) foot. The upper tier was about five (5) feet above the lower tier and was reached by means of a ladder.

Results of Investigation of Prisoner of War Camps, Numbers three(3) and ten(10), Sendai.

2 Oct. 45

Departed Sendai 0900 and arrived Kurosawajiri 1430, with following personnel, E. A. Kennedy, Jr. 2nd Lt. Inf., T/3 K. Nakanishi 30106704, interpreter and Pvt. Keith D. Jones 37760052. Contacted local police authorities and learned that Prisoner of War Camp was located near an electric plant at Wagaseunin, about 14 miles on the road to Yuta. After leaving police, spent the night in Kurosawajiri.

Mileage Sendai to Kurosawajiri 89 miles.

3 Oct. 45

Proceeded to Prisoner of War Camp Number ten(10) and found a local policeman and 1st. Lt. Sano, who had been camp commander since 19 May 45, when this camp had been constructed. The prisoners arrived at the camp 31 May 45. Lt. Sano, apparently had some trouble in remembering the number of people at this camp, as he had forwarded his records to Lt. Col. Kitajima (in charge of Tohoku district prisoner of war camps.)

Captain J. R. DeBergh, Recovery Team Number 65 had previously contacted Lt. Col. Kitajima and secured rosters from him, which in turn have been forwarded to General Headquarters.

According to Lt. Sano he had released the following:

- 1 Australian
- 187 Americans
- 105 English
- 2 Canadians
- 3 Dutch
- 2 Norwegians

He also reported that there had been no deaths, and no evidence of any deaths could be found.

A complete physical examination of the camp was made and very little evidence of any type could be found. The camp had been given a thorough cleaning and all windows and doors had been boarded over.

Lt. Sano informed us that the camp had already been visited by three(3) United States Army men who had arrived from Morioka. Their identity was unknown.

The buildings in the compound were in good condition and this was probably due to the fact that these had only been erected in May 1945.

The large building where the Prisoners of War were quartered contained in addition to sleeping quarters, the kitchen, store rooms, latrines and the medical section.

There were double tiers for sleeping purposes, the lower tier being of wood construction and raised above the floor level about one(1) foot. The upper tier was about five(5) feet above the lower tier and access hereto was by means of a ladder.

Six(6) men sleep in each tier and the two tiers faced each other, giving accommodations for 24 men to a section, these sections being numbered. Lt. Sano informed us that the men slept on straw mats although none were in evidence.

A smaller building contained the guard house and two solitary confinement cells. Lt. Sano informed us that only one(1) man had been placed in solitary confinement and his offence had been that, he stole some sugar.

The few papers that were recovered at this camp are enclosed in a separate envelope marked "Papers Recovered at POW Camp #10 Sendai."

Upon return to Kurosawajiri we contacted Sendai Headquarters for northern Prisoner of War Camps at Satowake, and were told that there were no Chinese prisoners of war in this area.

4 Oct. 45

Departed Kurosawajiri 0800 arrived Prisoner of War Camp #3 located on road from Sawabe, 9 miles toward Iwagaski at Hosokura Kozau, a mining camp.

The camp commander was not present at this camp and there were only three(3) employees of the mining company. The camp was built in October 1944 and the Prisoners of War arrived in February 1945. Lt. Katsuo Ishizawa was the camp commander.

The following names were noted on signs in the Prison Office:

Major Houston S. Farris
26th Cav. Commanding
1st. Lt. Hugh E. Wandel
91st. CAC. Adj.
Lt. Col. Robert C. Gaskill
MC

The mining employees told us that on 22 Sept. 45 there were two hundred forty-seven(247) Prisoners of War. They also stated that the ashes of those prisoners who had died had been sent to Toyko. The remains were reported to have been cremated in a retort at the mining camp.

Again in this case the camp, being of recent construction was in good condition. This camp had been cleaned and only a few papers were present, which are enclosed in separate envelope marked "Papers Recovered at POW Camp #3 Sendai."

The camp was of the same general structure as Camp #10, although at this camp they had latrines in separate buildings and separate building for an isolation ward.

Arrived Sendai 1500 this day.

At both these camps the company officials claimed they had no lists of the workers, as details of a certain number of men were sent daily, to work at the plants.
